

I am pleased to provide our Senior Resources Guide to help you and your family find local resources.

This guide was developed by volunteers on the Brookfield Commission on Aging with the help of staff at the Brookfield Senior Center and the Municipal Agent for the Elderly. As such, I believe it represents one of the best things about Brookfield: people collaborating to make our community a wonderful place to live.

Stephen C. Dunn
First Selectman

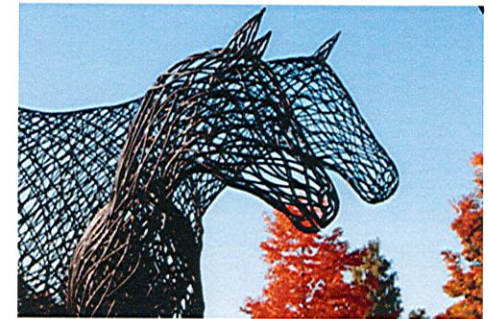

The Brookfield Commission on Aging seeks to enhance the lives of present and future generations of our town's older citizens.

The Commission proposes and evaluates programs and services for older citizens in Brookfield and assists the town in the development, initiation, coordination and implementation of programs and services for older citizens.

We welcome suggested improvements to future editions of this Resource Guide.
