

Come Celebrate Earth Day with the Brookfield Conservation Commission
 April 23rd From 10:00am- 12 noon Eriksen Farm Open Space 8 Nabby Rd.

Dedication of Brookfield's
 First Barn
 Quilt

Learn about:

Our plans for a native Perennial Garden at Eriksen

Invasive species and what you can do to help Brookfield by planting Connecticut native plants

What the Commission is planning to remove invasives from our Open Space lands

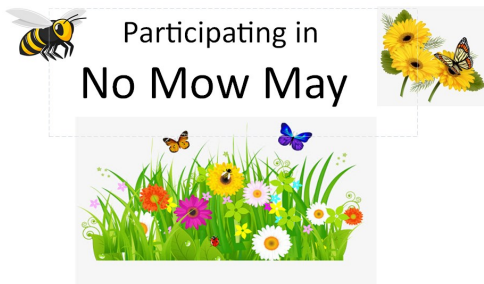

Build your own
 Blue Bird house

And make a bird seed feeder

Learn how you can help the Pollinators this Spring and pick up your "No Mow May" sign.

Making the world safer for pollinators one lawn at a time

Brookfield Conservation Committee Project

Help us plant bushes to attract pollinators and birds.

Recycle so others can Reuse—There will be a box for "gently used" men's (desperately needed) & woman's clothing for the "Dorothy Day Hospitality House" Dorothy Day feeds & shelters homeless in Danbury